

AMERICAN TROOPS
WILL BE RETURNED
HOME SPEEDILYSays Edward Hurley,
Who Leaves for Europe Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Edward Hurley, chairman of the United States shipping board, announced tonight on the eve of his departure for Europe that the government intends to return to this country as speedily as possible the American Expeditionary Forces. The purpose of Mr. Hurley's trip to Europe is to arrange the details for their transportation.

To offset the losses of transport tonnage thru the withdrawal of British ships hitherto engaged in carrying American soldiers overseas, Mr. Hurley hopes to utilize 25 or 30 German and Austrian liners, with accommodations for 4,000 men each. In compensation for the "loan" of these vessels, he said, food would be sent to the people of central Europe on their return voyages.

Mr. Hurley said the shipping board would be able to bring troops back at the rate of 300,000 a month, if the "war department wants them returned as fast as that."

He would meet General Pershing at American Field Headquarters, he added, to discuss the details of their homecoming.

While he will go abroad with Herbert Hoover, federal food administrator, to co-operate in arrangements for the shipment and distribution of foodstuffs to regions liberated under the armistice, Mr. Hurley said his mission abroad primarily to do with the "getting the boys back home."

Convoys, wounded, including many who would have returned to the battle front had the war continued, would be the first troops brought out of France, he said. They would be followed by units of the German army, the service following plan already partly worked out by Secretary Baker and the general staff. On future developments in the internal affairs of Germany and Austria and their relations with the allies the shipping official added together with the trend of European events in general would depend the number of troops to be brought to this country within the next few months but he was preparing, he said, to transport large contingents.

There are 67 transports flying the American flag and it is hoped that those with the German and Austrian liners which he anticipated using temporarily will suffice to bring American soldiers home as rapidly as the military authorities desire. If their capacity proves inadequate, he added, the shipping board has 125 double-deck cargo vessels, some of which can be transformed for transport work.

Mr. Hurley said he would take up with the allied maritime transport council in London, which turns over to the German and Austrian maritime authorities the question of utilizing some of the idle tonnage of the central powers. There were 15 liners at Hamburg and Bremen, he stated and 10 or 15 in Austrian ports, which would carry in the aggregate 100,000 men in each voyage to American ports, returning with food or other necessary cargoes.

British transports, he stated, which have carried 60 per cent of the American troops overseas since the military program was increased early last summer, will be utilized to convey British dominion and colonial troops back to their home countries.

Mr. Hurley said present plans call for his return with Mr. Hoover before Christmas. They will sail tomorrow going first to London.

From there they will go to Paris to meet authorities of the allies and American governments in direct touch with the rationing and shipping situation.

Commenting on the government's plan to continue the merchant ship building program to help make up the world's deficit of 20,000,000 tons brought about thru the ravages of war, Mr. Hurley said, American yards will produce 150 vessels of 1,000,000 tons aggregate during November and December. Another 450,000 tons of cargo carriers would be completed or before January 1 of voyages in the nitrate trade, which will be discontinued as a result of the cessation of munitions making on a large scale.

Mr. Hurley declared his board hopes to return his ships in the service of the war department and vessels under its own charter engaged in government trade to the regular commercial channels within a year. The shipping board would consider, he asserted, its policy of paying American wages and would conduct a country-wide propaganda to attract men to the merchant marine. A feature of this plan, he said, is the preparation of a text book on ships and shipping which will be introduced in the public schools.

"Having spent billions in building an American merchant marine," declared Mr. Hurley, "with ships equipped with quarters fit

M'Adoo Will Continue to Unify
R. R. Operations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Regardless of the ending of hostilities, Director General McAdoo intends to continue to unify railroad operations and pool facilities thruout the period of government control, which under the law will end 21 months after peace is formally declared. This policy, it was stated today, has been adopted definitely and the railroad administration will not limit its changes in the interest of economy to those contributing to winning the war. Mr. McAdoo, together with other observers of the development of government policies is represented as believing that on the showing made by the railroads under unified control during the next year or two depends settlement of the issue of permanent government control and ownership or of restoration of private management.

Without attempting at this time to make a definite stand on this question the director-general it is said plans to make government operation show the best results possible. Instead of considering any proposed reform in the light of its necessity as a war measure, he will regard it from the standpoint of whether it will improve transportation conditions for the nation's business in the future.

The director general hopes that the reforms such as pooling of facilities, short hauling and standardizing or unifying operation and accounting practices will result in material economy in another year and that ultimately this will mean rate reductions or extensions to improve service.

The railroad administration's policy it was learned will be to minimize the influence of state laws and regulations over rates, but to seek the advice and co-operation of state railway or utility commissions on police matters such as safety work, elimination of crossings, erection of stations. These state bodies will be regarded as advisory rather than executive institutions, however. This course is contrary in a large degree to that advocated by the state commissioners at their convention here this week.

SITUATION IN HOLLAND
CAUSES APPREHENSION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Information reaching here from official sources indicates the situation in Holland is causing grave apprehension and that the presence there of the former German emperor with members of his family and some of his strongest supporters may so inflame the people as to endanger the monarchy. While it is true it is pointed out that the former kaiser is practically a prisoner in the von Bentinck castle, he is not the prisoner of any of his foes. It was suggested that the immediate fate of the ex-kaiser is of little moment compared with other affairs in Europe and is chiefly because of the effect of his presence upon an already disturbed state in the Netherlands that he is the object of concern among the allied statesmen. Bolshevism apparently has taken root in Holland. Before the war relations between the Dutch and German concerns were very close and it is suggested that the Bolshevists may see in the presence of the former ruler of Germany an excuse to precipitate an uprising against the queen.

GERMANS WILL BEGIN RETREAT TODAY

HEADQUARTERS OF THE AMERICAN FIRST ARMY IN FRANCE, Nov. 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—The German retreat will begin today to leave points they now occupy northeast of the American lines according to a German wireless message. Opposite the American front there was much wagon and automobile traffic Friday, the Germans apparently hauling material to the rear.

A few German rear guards will remain as patrols to pick up any stragglers, should some of the Germans attempt to desert. American observation balloons went up today, the observers endeavoring to get an idea of the extent of the German withdrawal, but most of the traffic was so far back that little activity could be seen.

DEMAND HIGHER WAGES

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 15.—Employees of the Northwestern Telephone company struck here today, because the company had not granted their demands for increased wages.

GIVEN COMMAND AT FRONT

Paris, Nov. 15.—General Johnson Hagood, chief of staff of the American department of supply has been promoted to a command at the front. He is succeeded by Brig. Gen. W. D. Connor.

For Americans, we propose to carry on the work we have begun. All we ask is that manufacturers take advantage of their opportunity and provide the cargoes necessary to keep these vessels at sea. He predicted that within five years 1,000,000 men will be engaged in operating the merchant fleet including officers and men, shipyard workers and men and women in factories making marine equipment.

PEACE CONGRESS WILL MEET AT
AN EARLY DATEPersonnel of American Commission Not Complete

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Developments in Europe not only in the military way but in the field of international politics, and the tendency of the revolutionary spirit manifested by the demoralized civilian population of the central empires to spread to neighboring states, have influenced the allied and American governments to arrange for the meeting at an early date of the great peace congress.

The Atlantic cables were burdened with business considered to have been made up for the most part of the exchanges between Washington and Paris where the interallied council is endeavoring to reach an agreement as to the time and place for the holding of the conference.

There has been a disposition to delay the holding of the peace conference until the political situation in Europe had somewhat crystallized, but it is understood today other considerations finally led to a decision by the associated governments to proceed to assemble the conference at the earliest date that can be had, not having regard to the difficulty of ensuring the attendance of commissions or delegates at Versailles, which seems most likely to be selected as the place of the meeting.

One reason suggested for the change of decision is the necessity of restoring the channels of trade and industry in the late enemy states so as to afford employment to labor and thereby relieve the threat of Bolshevism and anarchy. Another is the general desire now expressed by all the allied governments to relieve the civilian populations of the central powers from the danger of famine, it being recognized that this relief work can best be carried on after formal peace treaties have been negotiated. There also has been some apprehension that delay in the consummation of peace would have an injurious effect upon industries in America and the allied countries.

President Wilson May Attend With the assurance of an early assembly of the peace conference attention today turned to the composition of the American commission. The belief is growing that President Wilson will attend but probably not in the capacity of a delegate or commissioner. It is known that Secretary Lansing will head the American commission and Colonel House, Justice Louis Brandeis and Elihu Root, were mentioned as others likely of selection.

Besides the delegates a number of army and navy officers must be named to assist the commission. In that connection attention has been directed to the names of General Tasker Bliss, former chief of staff, and now American representative on the supreme war council; Major General Crowder, judge advocate general and provost marshal, and Brig. General Samuel Ansell, acting judge advocate general, and Vice Admiral Sims, Captain Riddle McLean, formerly judge advocate of the navy. James Brown Scott, secretary of the Carnegie endowment for universal peace and also a participant in the last conference at The Hague is believed to be under consideration as secretary for the American commission.

Congress Will Not Be Represented on the commission as was the case at the Paris conference of 1898, when peace treaties between the United States and Spain were drawn, the fact has not yet developed. On the contrary it was said there is a decided disinclination to involve the legislative branch of the government in any way in the work of constructing treaties, which is regarded as a purely executive function under the terms of the constitution. It also was today recalled the senate itself not many years ago recorded its formal objection to the appointment of the president of any of its members as commissioners to negotiate agreements which must afterwards come before it for approval.

Notice has been taken by officials here of the demand by certain Socialistic elements, not only in Europe but in America to have labor participate in the peace congress. Officials were understood to hold that to recognize labor in this way would be to establish class distinction which would be thoroughly un-American.

RAILROAD EXPENDITURES

Washington, Nov. 15.—Railroads up to October 1, had spent $103,864,000 on their billion dollar improvement program, authorized by Director General McAdoo for the year 1918, said a statement today by Robert S. Lovett, director of the railroad administration's division of capital expenditures. Of this amount $173,716,000 was spent for additions and betterments, $216,186,000 for cars and locomotives and only $13,961,000 for new tracks.

An Urgent Appeal to the Citizens
of Morgan County

The campaign for the United War Work funds is not going as it should. Many are not responding to the appeals and to date, with only three days remaining, only about $45,000 of the required $81,000 has been subscribed. Many are giving amounts that are too small.

Morgan county never yet failed in any war campaign and must not do so now. Don't think that because peace is in sight the boys over there won't need the help and comfort that your money will give them.

The amount asked—$81,000—absolutely must be raised and it's a mighty small sum to pay for what they have already given you.

Don't wait to be asked—the time is too short. Go to headquarters first thing today and sign a pledge card or call headquarters on the phone and have a pledge card brought to you.

Show that you're an American and that you appreciate what the American army has done and is still doing.

We cannot believe it possible that Morgan County with its fine past record for generosity will not subscribe its full quota now.

SENATE PASSES
DAY DEBATING
PLANS FOR PEACEPlans for League of Nations Criticised
and Approved

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The plan for a league of nations to enforce peace, as proposed by President Wilson in his fourteen principles and endorsed by allied statesmen was criticised and approved in debate today in the senate.

Senators Walsh of Montana and Owen of Oklahoma, both Democrats, praised the plan while Senator Poindexter, Republican, of Washington, declared such a league would necessitate revision of the federal constitution and would bring about the abrogation of the Monroe doctrine.

Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, Republican, characterized the plan as a "novel idea" which should be carefully considered. He also inquired as to whether the plan was not being advocated for the purpose of furthering free trade.

During the debate Senator Owen declared a league of nations was responsible for "bringing autocracy in Europe to its knees."

He denied the league as proposed would in any way interfere with this country's tariff or internal affairs and declared this is the logical and opportune time for its establishment.

Regarding opposition of Colonel Roosevelt to the admission of Germany into the league, Senator Walsh in approving the plan, said that unless Germany is admitted the other nations of the world must continue to maintain large land and sea forces. Senator Walsh read from the writings of H. C. Wells, the British author, praising President Wilson as the leader of English political thought and discussing the objections to the league. Mr. Well's statement that a subsidized press opposes disarmament, brought a protest from Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, against the argument that men who are opposed to the league oppose it for selfish reasons.

Senator Poindexter attacked Mr. Wells, characterizing him as a brilliant writer, a Socialist, pacifist and internationalist, belonging to "a great class of radicals" whose doctrines are the same as those advocated by William Hohenzollern, who, he added, also is an internationalist.

SERVIVORS LANDED

Miami, Fla., Nov. 15.—Captain Fesser and twelve other survivors of small American steamer Yeurut of Philadelphia, which went down last Sunday off the Bahama Islands, have arrived here after sixty two hours in an open boat. The steward and four others of the crew are missing and are believed to have been lost.

SOLDIER GIVEN 25 YEARS

Camp Grant, Ill., Nov. 15.—Morris Tinsky, a Chicago soldier at Camp Grant, has been sentenced to 25 years in disciplinary barracks at Fort Leavenworth for refusing to be inoculated against typhoid. Tinsky was a member of company 6, 161st depot brigade.

BULLETINS

LONDON, Nov. 15.—A war office statement in regard to the Turkish armistice says that the terms include the evacuation of Mosul Vilayet by all the military forces and the surrender of the artillery supplies. The town of Mosul must be cleared by November 15.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—"Uncle Sam" went on the job of preparing for rehabilitation of his disabled soldier sons when offices were opened today in Chicago by Charles W. Sylvester, divisional representative of the federal board for vocational education.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Secretary Daniels in an address here tonight predicted that "no man now living will see, unless wisdom departs from us, the government retire from the building and operating of cargo carrying ships." The naval secretary spoke at the twenty fifth annual dinner of the Society of Naval Architects and Mariners.

BERNE, Nov. 15.—A wireless dispatch from Bern says Count Esterhazy, Count Schenyl Count Desseffy and Baron Vlassics have returned from Eckartsau Castle where they conferred with former Emperor Charles. The latter, they declared had decided to renounce all participation in Austrian and Hungarian affairs.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—(Havas).—The newspapers today announced the premiers and foreign ministers of the entente were about to confer or had even begun to confer at Paris and Versailles. The news seems at present to be premature.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—In connection with Secretaries Lansing's probable designation as a member of the American delegation to the peace conference it was understood in official circles today that Frank L. Polk of New York, now counselor of the state department, would become secretary of state.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Investigation into the feasibility of consolidating Western Union and Postal Telegraph facilities, begun by a special committee when the government assumed wire control last summer has been practically completed. Orders providing for the consolidating in a number of cities over the country probably will be issued shortly.

VETERAN YANKS
RETURN TO U. S.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Major General Beaumont B. Buck and Brig. Gen. John G. Barrett and four hundred veterans, many of them wounded, all of whom have seen a year or more of service abroad, arrived this morning from France aboard the United States Naval transport Harrisburg.

When the ship steamed up the bay past the Statue of Liberty the men lined the rail and cheered. News of the signing of the armistice was received aboard the ship by wireless Tuesday and was the occasion of a celebration.

724 WOUNDED
YANKS RETURNED

Washington, Nov. 15.—The total number of sick and wounded men landed in the United States from the American Expeditionary forces for the week ended Nov. 8, was 724.

Copper Miners
Will Maintain
Present Output

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The American copper industry thru a committee of producers and refiners, agreed today with the war industries board to maintain the present rate of production and preserve existing levels of prices and wages. Government regulations of prices and allocation of materials will continue, the entire agreement to remain in effect until next January 1.

In making this announcement tonight after an all day conference, members of the committee and officials of the board explained that the action was taken to stabilize the copper industry and those with which it is closely related during the period of transition from a war to a peace basis. The conference took up the probable world requirements during reconstruction in Europe.

"One of the allied governments," said a formal statement issued after the conference, "within the last twenty-four hours has requested information on delivery of 200,000 tons of the commodity which was accepted as a sign that the European demand would not only be large but immediate. Another point given consideration was the prospective requirements for civilian consumption due to the curtailment of the productivity of many American industries for the last eighteen months because of the needs of the war department which has created a demand that should prove a factor in stabilizing conditions generally. The civilian demands in Europe and elsewhere held in check for more than four years would work to the same end it was thought, since America produces approximately 75 per cent of the world's copper supply."

"A further resolution," continued Mr. Pardee, "reciting the conditions that now prevail in the industry and the necessity for measures to revise the basis of relations between the utilities and the public and instructing the president to appoint a committee to study and report upon problems of reconstruction was introduced by P. H. Gadsden, president of the Charleston Consolidated Railway & Lighting company of Charleston, S. C. This resolution was unanimously adopted."

WANT TO TURN
SHIPS OVER TO U. S.

PARIS, Nov. 15.—(By The Associated Press.)—Jugo-Slav crews remaining aboard the Austro fleet in the Adriatic are reported to have made a proposition to turn over the warships to the United States, but as this was considered inexpedient it was arranged later that the vessels should be turned over to the allied and American forces in accordance with the armistice terms. The Jugo-Slavs, much impressed by America's activity in behalf of their cause, submitted a proposition that the United States hold the vessels until their final disposition was determined. They hope when a decision is reached the ships will be returned to them and thus form the nucleus of a Jugo-Slav navy.

REPORT DEATH OF
MAJOR LANGWILL

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 15.—The death in action in France of Major William G. Langwill has been officially reported to his father, James S. Langwill of this city. Major Langwill was with the 30th infantry, was killed and was formerly military teacher at Iowa State College at Ames. His widow resides in Aurora.

MINNESOTA WILL REMAIN WET

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 15.—Minnesota will remain "wet" according to complete official returns announced tonight by the secretary of state. The proposed dry amendment failed by 753 votes.

Gives Resume of British Merchant
Ship Building

LONDON, Nov. 15.—(British Wireless service.)—The parliamentary secretary of the ministry of shipping speaking in the house of commons yesterday gave a resume of the merchant ship building operations in Great Britain during the period of the war. In 1913, he said, the record figure 1,900,000 tons was reached. In 1914, when the war broke out the output fell to 17,000 tons. In 1915, it decreased to 650,000 tons, in 1916 to about 540,000 tons and in 1917 rose to a little under 1,200,000. During the 12 months ended October 31, 1918, the total output approximated 1,600,000 tons.

Explanation of these figures, he said, rested with the victory over Germany's submarines. Taking the whole period from the inception of the convoy system in the summer of 1917 to November 2, this year, the convoys included about 47,000,000 gross tons of merchant shipping and losses were less than 1.1 per cent.

When the war broke out England had about 250,000 men engaged in shipbuilding. The number now is 381,000. Of these, however, only 116,000 were engaged in merchant ship work.

Building now has risen to the mark of nearly 145,000 tons per month, he said, and the net loss of shipping had been reduced to a negligible figure, the loss in September being less than 7,000 tons.

The output of the twelve months ending October 31, 1918, he placed at 1,600,000 tons of merchant shipping in addition to war vessels estimated to be the equivalent of an additional 1,300,000 tons. Thus, he said, the virtual output for these twelve months was nearly 3,000,000 tons as against 2,300,000 in 1913, which was a record year.

With the additional shipyard workers who would be released from the front and the transfer of labor from the naval yards to the merchant yards, he estimated that an additional million tons a year could be produced in the future.

ARE IN FAVOR OF
PUBLIC OWNERSHIP

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Street railway companies in the United States have not gone on record in favor of public ownership reports to the contrary notwithstanding, according to J. H. Pardee, president of the American Railway association Mr. Pardee in a statement today, declared a resolution by J. D. Mortimer of the Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Company, reciting the present condition of the industry and inability to continue the service unless substantial relief was afforded it and recommending to member companies that they afford every facility to states and municipalities for acquiring existing transportation facilities, was not adopted at our conference on Nov. 1, but was referred to the executive committee of the association for such action as it saw fit to take. So far no action has been taken.

WILSON PRAISES
KING OF BELGIUM

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—President Wilson sent by cable a message to King Albert of the Belgians felicitating him upon his birthday and paying tribute to Belgium's self sacrifice which is imperishable.

The message follows: "His Majesty the King of the Belgians, Brussels: 'Never has a national holiday occurred at a more auspicious moment, and never have felicitations been more heartfelt than those which it is my privilege to your majesty on this day. When facing imminent destruction, Belgium by her sacrifice won for herself a place of honor among nations, a crown of glory, imperishable, the all else were lost. The danger is averted, the hour of victory come, and with it the promise of a new life, fuller, greater, nobler than has been known before. The blood of Belgium's heroic sons has not been shed in vain. 'Woodrow Wilson.'"

LEAVES FOR THIS COUNTRY

Rome, Thursday, Nov. 14.—Monsignor Ceratti, papal under secretary of state, left tonight for America.

WORK ON CANTONMENT
STOPPED

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 15.—Construction on the north Columbia cantonment here has been stopped by orders from the war department. It was learned today, the contract called for an expenditure of approximately $7,000,000.

REVISION OF WA-
REVENUE BILL IS
NOW ASSUREDRecommendations of McAdoo Will Be Fulfilled

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Downward revision of the war revenue bill to about the six billion dollar total recommended by Secretary McAdoo appears to be assured, members of the senate finance committee said tonight after Mr. McAdoo had personally explained to the committee suggestions as to future government financing made in his letter last night to Chairman Simmons. Some of the secretary's proposals however, especially those to abandon excess profits taxation and increase individual income taxes in 1920 met with strong opposition senators said. Republican opposition to limiting taxation two years hence was not unexpected and a strong fight in both houses on this feature of the revenue bill is now considered probable. In a statement tonight regarding Mr. McAdoo's conference with the committee Chairman Simmons said the secretary's estimates of $18,000,000,000 of government expenditures next year and of probable reductions by 1920 which would make possible reduction of the tax bill to about four billion dollars largely are guess work, based on all possible but incomplete information.

"With these estimates," he said, Secretary McAdoo thinks if we raise $6,000,000,000 by taxation he can finance the government for the next fiscal year. Regarding Mr. McAdoo's estimate for reduction of taxation for 1920 to $18 billion dollars, Chairman Simmons said: "The secretary believes it to be of the highest importance that business be advised in advance as to what taxes it will have to pay. He thinks if that is not done, with a special session of congress next spring to enact revenue legislation it would take five or six months and be near the end of the year before people would know what they would have to pay."

The excess profits tax. Regarding the plan to abolish excess profits and to increase individual income taxes by 1920, Secretary McAdoo stated is inherently undesirable, a burden upon business, in essence a computation tax and in the nature of an income tax.

Senator Simmons would not estimate how much longer the committee will require to revise the bill but said it might take several weeks. Other members however, said incorporation of McAdoo's suggestions would virtually require redrafting of the entire measure. The finance committee will meet tomorrow to begin its work.

There is a general settlement in the committee that many of the special excise taxes including those on luxuries should be stricken from the bill. Modification of other schedules also is favored.

DOES NOT LOOK FOR BASEBALL WAR

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago Americans, said tonight he did not believe the action of the minor leagues in deciding that the major leagues should draft no more of their players would result in a baseball war.

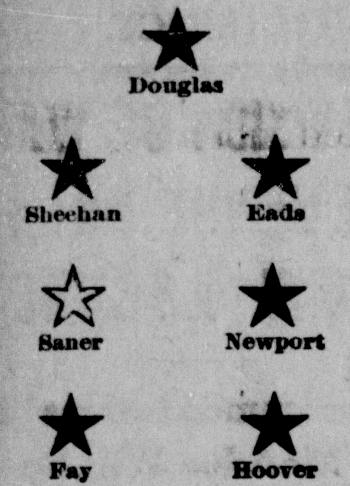

"There is no chance for a fight," President Comiskey said, "the major leagues need the minors and the minor leagues need the majors. The conference between President Ban Johnson of the American League and August Herrmann of Cincinnati, chairman of the National Baseball Commission was postponed until tomorrow."

Those people who found it easy
to express their patriotism by gladly approving the government
restrictions on material improvements will not rejoice over the fact that all restrictions have now been removed.

The grand jury has suggested
the need of a fire escape at the county jail. The record of the past ten or twelve years indicates
that it is easy enough to escape
from that building without providing any outside stairways or spiral steel chutes.

Altho America has 4,000,000
men under arms, the number who
are actually available for service
after peace is declared is comparatively small. But with important work to do overseas the government will face little difficulty
in securing more than an adequate
number of reenlistments.

THE PACKERS' TROUBLES

As an after-the-war result the English are already asking for an investigation of the alleged American beef trust. Unless the inquiry there has more momentous results than the various ones

conducted in the U. S. during recent years, it will not be worth
the time or expense, and when finished the market will show no
special advantage to the consumer. All along there have been complaints that American beef
was transported overseas and sold
in England cheaper than in the U.
S. So the packer are being criticised all around. They undoubtedly do have the business all their own way but have been able to show that they sell their products at fair prices and that their percentage of profit is not excessive.

DECENCY AND EFFICIENCY

Every Jacksonville person who heard Mr. Albert at the United War Work luncheon yesterday
give the facts and figure to prove the efficiency and decency of the U. S. army was prouder than ever
of that army record. For the most part too, the auditors had
a new line of thought about how closely related are decency and efficiency. In fact, it was shown that the governmental plans in which various war agencies are co-operating are undertaken for
the very purpose of making the army a more efficient fighting force.

The records show how well this has been done and proves beyond
contradiction that American
methods in less than two years' time
surpass the much boasted military system of Germany. Evidently that system overlooked
some highly important basic facts.
Every United War subscription is adding toward the continuance of that marvelous morale
which has made victory possible
at a date much earlier than the government officers thought possible.

THESE WILL KEEP RIGHT ON

Four-Minute Men of Illinois
are to "stay on the job" until the war is finished. They are not to let down because an armistice
has been signed. Word has come from headquarters that they "enlisted for the war," and that the country needs their efforts now
as much as it ever needed them.

State Director George R. Jones
is sending out to each Four-Minute of the State a copy of the following telegram from the national director at Washington:
"Notify your organizations that there must not be the slightest relaxation in effort of the Four-Minute Men. Campaigns planned must be carried through. When time for any change arrives it
will be made the subject for formal announcement from here
and in advance. Meantime no man has the right to assume that he has knowledge warranting relaxation in one degree."

"At this time above all others,"
adds State Director Jones,
"the leaders of public opinion
must not give up."

TAKE UP
RECONSTRUCTION WORK

Active plans for reconstruction
work are already being made by the women and children in industry department of the Woman's Committee. State Council of Defense. The department has therefore called the attention of all

its county chairmen to the meetings held by the health insurance
commission in various Illinois
cities this week.

A thorough study has been
made by the health commission
of:

The relation of occupation and
disease.

Economic loss due to sickness
in several thousand cases.

The effect of disease on standards of living.

Medical examination and care
of school children.

Therefore, as the field investigation of the commission is nearing an end, it has a great variety
of proposals under consideration.

These public hearings were held
to enable the Commission to secure further data from experienced men. Pertinent facts bearing on the subjects coming within the scope of the commission's investigation, and especially constructive suggestions with reference to sickness prevention and
the reduction of burdens connected with disease, are desired.

CHANGING VIEWPOINTS.

The Guaranty Trust Company
of New York has been issuing a series of papers bearing on financial and economic conditions after the war. The final paper was recently issued and includes the following very suggestive thoughts:
"The new conception of what
men owe to themselves and to each other, which has been fostered by the common sufferings
and undertakings of the war, is permeated by the idea of service.
That idea is expressed in a host
of men drawn from every corner
of the world to put down once and for all the injustices of a military autocracy. It runs through the thought of all those who stand behind these armies. It is the very heart of the ideal for which we fight. Whatever terms of peace are drawn the animating
purpose of them will be service.
And it is upon a basis of service
that the enduring plans of any nation for reconstruction will be grounded.

"Selfishness has not gone out of the world. Progress will continue to be made in the future,
as in the past, by individuals asserting their interests in opposition to the interests of others. But unless present tendencies are being grossly misinterpreted there is going to be a very much changed
theory of what those interests
are. It must inevitably be a keener appreciation of the interdependence
of all classes and all nations.
The war has broken down every distinction among men except the distinction of ability."

A REBORN PEOPLE

That Thanksgiving will mean
more to this year than ever before
has already been suggested in these columns. A civic celebration of Thanksgiving this year
is a certainty in many parts of the country. Cleveland set the example by calling a meeting before which the mayor asked Hon.
Myron T. Herrick to place a suitable program in celebration of the victory that is now assured.

In Cleveland, each church is
to hold its own service at nine-
thirty in the morning, and all
the citizens are urged to come together at eleven in a community service. The meeting will be opened with the singing of America,
and closed with The Star Spangled Banner, and will be participated
in by prominent community and religious leaders. The text adopted at Mr. Herrick's suggestion is
"The Re-discovery of Spiritual Things." "This means," he says,
"things spiritual in government
as well as in religion—a re-discovery of the soul and spirit of our nation, a re-discovery that
the God of the people lives, and that the right will prevail. We are a reborn people conscious of having had a part in making these things events, and filled with thankfulness for assured victory
and lasting peace in a world
where for so long there has been no peace."

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

THE FIRST PLOW

Old Tubal Cain was badly bored
by all the wrangles of his day,
he made a sword out of a sword,
and thought that war was done
away.

"Gee whizz," he said,
"when people see how much a plowshare beats a sword, they'll
get a forge, and try, like me,
to sanely earn their bread and board."

The tools of war he laugh-
ingly have won; a man can't cultivate his corn with any sort of patent gun. War makes the weary nations weep, and agriculture makes them grin; no hus-
bandman can shear his sheep
with catapult or culverin. Alas
for good old Tubal Cain, and all the lessons that he taught! His bright example was in vain, for ever since we've scrapped and fought. The steel that should have made a spade, if we had followed up his plan, was used to form a flashing blade, with which to carve our fellowman. The metal that would form a plow
became a sword of weight and size, to slice a fellow from his brow clear down to where his wishbone lies. I wonder if we're wiser now, since war has bled
the nations white? Shall we proceed to make a plow, and say
to sword and guns, "Good Night?"
Or will we rest nine years or ten,
and then get hungry for a scrap,
and say, "Give me the sword again
—we want to disarrange the map?"

OBITUARY

Mrs. Eatha M. Smith died at her home in Ashland at 4 o'clock
Thursday morning, Nov. 7, of influenza which developed into pneumonia. Mrs. Smith's maiden
name was Miss Eatha McAllister.
She was born March 29, 1881, at Woodson and was married Dec.
8, 1911, to Charles B. Smith of Ashland.

Deceased was a member of the Christian church of Ashland and
her life was devoted to her home
and family. Besides her husband,
she is survived by one daughter,
Dorothy, one son, George, and her father, Mr. McAllister of Woodson, and the following sisters: Mrs. E. P. Sooy, Murray-
ville; Mrs. James Rolson, Woodson; Mrs. Ella Gunterman, Oklahoma.

The funeral was held at Yates-
ville cemetery in charge of Rev.
Mr. Burton of Ashland. The many beautiful flowers were cared for
by Mrs. Elmer Jones, Mrs. Fred Walbaum. The bearers were Lawrence Means, Lee Means, William Smith, Tom Means, Thomas Hanning and Lester Means.

E. J. HOWELLS CALLED

ON LOCAL FRIENDS

E. J. Howells, formerly district superintendent for the Central Union Telephone Co., was in Jacksonville yesterday to visit
A. R. Taylor the present district manager and other friends. Mr.
Howells had driven from Kansas with members of his family to Saukman county and took
the opportunity to again visit Jacksonville. In talking about influenza conditions at Kansas, Mr. Howells said the situation was very bad at one time
and quite a number of "fine
regulations" were necessary.

The Masonic temple was turned into an emergency hospital
and during the period of the epidemic 101 deaths occurred, either
from influenza or pneumonia which developed.

GRAND JURY HAS COMPLETED TERM WORK

Report Made on County Jail—
Few Indictments Returned—
Judge Smith Entered Orders
In Several Chancery Cases.

In the circuit court yesterday
Judge Smith entered a number of chancery orders, and received the report of the grand jury. A very few indictments were entered and the committee filed report
showing the result of the semi-annual visit to the county jail. The jury also had a report on a visit to the county home but the court
suggested that there had been no
request for such a report and that it had no proper place in the records of the circuit court.
As a matter of fact the same
statement was made at a previous term of court by Judge Jones
but grand juries have continued
to follow a long established custom of visiting the county home
and enjoying the hospitality of the superintendent and his wife.

The indictments returned are
as follows:

Leon McClure, Orville Brindle
and Charles Jackson, robbery.

These defendants are charged with making an attack July 28
on Thomas Abel. It will be remembered that this trouble occurred near the pumping station
where the accused men help up a group engaged in a crap game.

Stewart White was indicted on
the ground of starting an automobile without the knowledge
and consent of the owner. The defendant is accused of taking
the automobile belonging to H.
M. Andre on the 28th of last September.

Lloyd Hare, who was indicted
on the charge of burglary and larceny is an old offender and his name has often appeared on the court records. In this case he is accused of robbing the store of Mackey and Davidson on the night
of June 10, 1918.

Derek Turner, who is charged
with burglary and larceny, is said
to have entered the residence of Annie Grisby on the 18th of last month.

Charles Daly, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, on the 18th of last July made an attack on Katie Berry which resulted in the filing of information
against him.

The indictment against W. L.
Alexander for assault with a deadly weapon was the result of an altercation which occurred the first of July, 1918, between himself and Clark Gray. It is charged that when young Gray entered
the store to make a bank collection that he was struck by Mr.
Alexander with a steel wrecking
bar.

Other Cases.

In the case of Sarah Veeder vs.
George Veeder, divorced. Because of the failure of the defendant to pay $3,750 in accordance with a previous order of the court he was cited for contempt and ordered confined in the county jail.

In the partition proceedings
of George W. Brown vs. T. C.
Brown et al., the cause was referred to the master in chancery.
J. O. Priest was named guardian
ad litem for minor defendants.

In the divorce proceedings of Wilson Shaw vs. Ethel Shaw, the decree for divorce was granted.

In the divorce suit of Oscar Williams vs. Ada Williams, a motion was made by the defendant
to set aside the order of default
and this was allowed.

In the foreclosure proceedings
of H. B. Keplinger vs. C. C.
Berryman et al., the master's report was presented and approved.

Jail Report.

The report on the visit to the jail was presented to the court as follows:

"We, the undersigned members
of the grand jury, in compliance
with the law visited the county jail and found everything in a clean, healthful condition and all prisoners seemed in good health.
We think that there should be a fire escape built onto the jail as
there is only one way of egress
from the cell rooms and would make it very difficult to remove
prisoners in case of fire.

"We also found six prisoners
locked up: Willie Gray, larceny;
Manuel Turner, burglary and larceny; Leonard McClure, Orville Brindle and Charles Jackson, all
for highway robbery, and Lloyd Hare for burglary and larceny,
the first five being negroes and the last white.

A PECULIARLY SAD CASE

A short time since Dr. Alvarez
of Naples went to the house of a patron, Irwin Bentley, and found the father delirious on the floor; his wife was unconscious in bed and a newly born infant had fallen to the floor and was dead.
The doctor at once summoned
helped from the Red Cross and
five ladies immediately responded

and did all possible for the sufferers. Mrs. Bentley died during the night and Mrs. Bentley was removed to the home of his parents
where was in a critical condition
at last accounts. A double funeral was conducted in the cemetery for the mother and child by the Rev. Mr. Haas of the Methodist church.

The above picture is a likeness to our new Motor Hearse, the main difference being in the pattern of the draperies. We make studious effort at all times to give the best professional service possible, and with this additional equipment, are in position to accept business from a larger territory than was heretofore possible.

Since establishing this business eighteen years ago, it has experienced a very gratifying growth. Our Dodge Motor Car and Overland Touring Car make it possible for us to answer promptly all calls within a radius of 25 miles or more.

We appreciate the favors which we have received in the past from patrons and friends, and ask you to kindly tell others of our new equipment and improved service. Those unacquainted with us are asked to make inquiry of any one in Murrayville as to our standing.

We shall still maintain our horse drawn equipment for use when roads are bad. Those not in a position financially to meet the expense incurred when death touches the home should join Thompson's Mutual Funeral Expense Association, which has a state charter to do business in Murrayville. By listing the members of the family, in good health, and within certain age limits, and upon the payment of small assessments (just helping others in time of need) you receive $100 for funeral expenses. Write for a copy of by-laws.

It is our sincere hope that you will have no need for such service as ours, but if you do, you will find us ready at all hours of the day and night, to answer your call.

We again thank you for past favors.

GREAT APPEAL FOR WAR WORK SUBSCRIPTIONS

ALLEN ALBERT SHOWS CAUSE OF AMERICAN ARMY EFFICIENCY.

Cooperating Agencies Have Made Possible Army and Navy Morale—Comparative Figures Prove Importance of the Work—Campaign Moves a Little Slowly Here With $45,000 Out of $81,000 Raised.

It is quite difficult to direct a campaign of solicitation with restrictions that prevent public meetings. Nevertheless the prospects are excellent for the campaign of the United War Work campaign next Monday with Morgan county's total of $81,000 successfully raised. The money reported in Jacksonville at the luncheon yesterday noon and the total from the county report last night by Dr. Harker brings the subscription figures to $41,808.

The "salute and go to it" spirit of the campaign was indicated in the remarks made by both Dr. Hammelkamp and Dr. Harker, yesterday, for they said: "Morgan county never has failed and never will." At the luncheon yesterday encouraging reports were made and those who were present had the opportunity of hearing a marvelous informing address by Dr. Allen D. Albert of Chicago, formerly editor of the Minneapolis Tribune.

Army and Navy Morale. Mr. Albert has eloquence of a type that cannot be reproduced in a newspaper story. He covered his subject in a broad and convincing way, giving facts from his personal experiences and observations to show how the various war activities supplementing government activities, have maintained the marvelous morale of the American army and navy. Marvelous is not too strong a word when the records of the men in the U. S. army and navy service are compared with the records of any other navy and army in the world.

In addition to Mr. Albert's remarkable address the company heard with real pleasure a statement by Mrs. H. B. Barnes, a returned Y. W. C. A. worker.

The Day's Record. At the noon day luncheon yesterday the day's subscription from the city totaled $3,573. This, together with previous subscriptions, made a total for the city of $19,219. The subscriptions by wards reported were as follows:

First Ward—John Perry, $227.75

Second Ward—F. J. Waddell, $1,672.

Third Ward—J. W. Merrigan, $472.25.

Fourth Ward—H. H. Bancroft, $1,106.40.

Mrs. G. C. Guthrie reported a subscription of $10 from the Household Science Club and a Rev. was made of $75 from Rev.

James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R.

Mrs. Ben Larson reported for the Victory Girls of Jacksonville, $196.25, and J. S. Findley for the Victory Boys $182.75. Dr. J. R. Harker made the report for the county which at the noon hour had a total of $21,557. This made the total for the county $41,870, without including subscriptions from the colleges.

College President Qualifications. One of the best addresses ever heard in Jacksonville was that delivered by Mr. Albert. He was introduced by Chairman Hammelkamp as a man with abundant experience as a newspaper editor, a war correspondent and a sociological student and worker. The chairman said that Mr. Albert's list of positions and achievements was so long that he would be compelled to read it.

"Oh, pshaw," said Mr. Albert, who was still seated nearby and when he rose to speak he turned the tables very adroitly. He said that some eminent educators once wrote a book in which they dwelt especially upon the amount of learning, tact, power and character necessary to make a college president. Then he said with all his efforts and those of his friends he had never succeeded in rising to such a high estate.

The audience appreciated this statement since by Dr. Hammelkamp and Dr. Harker were sitting near Mr. Albert.

The speaker had been a newspaper correspondent in three wars and in his more recent activities has visited practically every cantonment of the army and also been at the war front. For months and months he has thus been in intimate touch with soldier life. His experiences in somewhat similar work during the Spanish-American war have enabled him to contrast conditions and to lay special emphasis upon the meaning and importance of present day war work. In a more convincing way than it has been the fortune of any of the audience yesterday to hear, Mr. Albert coupled up the efficiency of the American army to the special influences that America thru the government and by the special war agencies has built up around her soldiers. Figures were given to show how this efficiency has been increased in the army by the stamping out of social diseases and the figures and facts were given also to prove that life in the army and navy, instead of getting to the level that it had years ago, now shows higher moral conditions that exist in civil life.

A Miracle of the War. "The morale, the efficiency or whatever term you choose to use in connection with this development in army life," said Mr. Albert, "is the greatest miracle of the war. Not long ago I visited the Great Lakes Naval Training station and there saw a review of the sailors and as they passed by the reviewing stand in hollow square formation, each regiment with its own band, singing songs of war time, I knew that I was watching the sailor boys at the greatest training station of its kind in the world. The army organization plans as worked out by this government with the co-operation of the varied so-called war activities, really meant the building of character thru military service. In former years army life has meant the drabbing—if not destruction—of character and so the system has meant the transformation of army life. Just a few years ago I was on the Mexican border and with my own eyes saw soldiers of the American army in lines of hundreds, waiting for admittance to the questionable resorts of the red light district. I mention this to contrast the condition with that which exists in the army camps today.

"The wholesome surroundings of the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, the athletic activities, the various forms of amusement adopted, the little comforts provided for the men are responsible in great measure for the contrast. In addition to these physical things the right leadership has been provided and soldiers and sailors have been influenced by the right surroundings.

A Matter of Efficiency. "All these activities have been carried on, not as a religious work, but in the spirit of the government to build up the efficiency of its army. In the days before this war began the highest record of efficiency made was by the boasted German, whose record showed 720 men out of every 1,000 as the highest number found physically healthy and efficient for army service. Subsequently Japan was able to outdistance the world record and make the number 840 out of 1,000. Then came the U. S. C. and with the system followed, smashed all previous records, and in less than two years' time and made that number 901 men out of 1,000.

"In this connection I want to say that this country has built up the greatest medical corps that world has ever seen. You will find that in civil life the death rate is 13 to 13½ per cent and in the army service of the U. S. it is less than 1½ per cent.

"The government took the correct view that this problem of percentages—this matter of efficiency in the army service—was medical and social. It was realized that if you place in the balance on one side tuberculosis, typhoid fever, pneumonia and a half dozen other diseases which occur in the army and then place in the other balance the personal diseases of shame the latter will out weigh the former more than twice. It was this sensing of this fact that has brought about the government's course and made it plain that efficiency in the army and navy is the result of clean living.

An Army Comparison. "An examination of the records of cantonment and American army life has shown because of this policy better percentages that is true of those in civil life. The medical records of our army at home and abroad are the more marvelous when it is remembered that 50 per cent of all the Austrian armies are afflicted with some form of these diseases, and in the German army the percentage is 25. In the program for this personal efficiency 70 per cent of the activities belong to the government and 30 per cent to the agencies that are represented in this United War Work drive. Isn't it worth every cent of the $250,000,000 asked to thus help the army and the navy in continuing the good personal record already established?

"The agencies in which we are especially interested now provide for the leisure hours of the soldiers and there is where the danger lies. In the Spanish-American war I well remember that one Y. M. C. A. building with a capacity of 450 was all the space available for 12,500 boys. The development of singing in the American army has brought marvelous results, so has the establishment of schools and then has come the development of sports and play in other forms. I will never forget hearing 10,000 boys newly assembled at a southern camp singing "Onward Christian Soldiers." Many of them knew only the words of the first line or two but that made little difference. At the first they were a little shy but when they found that singing was a part of the army life they entered it with a will. Why, an army made up of boys singing such songs is enthused with a spirit that could lick a nation ten times as strong as Germany.

A Last Appeal. "Then I shall never forget another picture—that of 3,000 boys at a Catholic mass. These are only a few of the influences set in motion by the war activities for which we are pleading today. The ring of the fighting is gone, the zest of each day offering the sacrifice of life is no more. And now in the days of reaction we must surround these boys of ours with the influences that will so keep them that they shall still be our pride and joy."

Following Mr. Albert's address the chairman introduced Mrs. H. B. Barnes, a Y. W. C. A. canteen worker recently returned from front. Mrs. Barnes spoke in a very effective way of the work amongst the sailor boys and related a number of incidents to impress upon her hearers how much the personal touch and interest of the Y. M. C. A. and kindred organizations means for the boys in the service.

INFLUENZA RECORD. The record of influenza cases yesterday at the office of the city health warden was twenty-two. These figures indicated very little change by comparison with the record of the day before. The general opinion seems to be that no permanent relief will come unless more stringent health regulations are adopted or freezing weather comes.

COUNTY REPORT OF WAR FUNDS

Harrah for Franklin! This precinct goes over the top first leading the banner of victory for the county. Three cheers for Franklin!

And Concord comes close after them. Only $200 yet to report. They will do it by noon Saturday.

Murrayville and Chapin are coming right along. All county workers are invited to the luncheon at headquarters Saturday noon.

Let us make Saturday and Sunday record days. There is yet much to do, but it can be done. Morgan county always does it, and will do it again.

Salute and go to it until the shout of victory is heard throughout the entire county. The following is the report until 9 o'clock Friday night. Joseph R. Harker.

GAVE TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION

Charles M. Strawn, distributor of Case tractors, gave an interesting demonstration recently on the Mitterdorf farm two miles east of Jacksonville. The tractor was used on corn ground and readily demonstrated its power and adaptability for all farm work purposes. One man operates the Case handily.

CORRECTION

In the list of subscriptions made for the United War Work campaign recently published Mrs. T. L. McIlvane was credited with a subscription of $5. The figures should have read $35.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

The state civil service commission has announced that it will hold an examination for department stenographer, rank 2 and 3, and institution stenographer in Chicago, Springfield and Champaign on Saturday, Nov. 30. Examination for department clerks rank 2 and 3 will be held at Jacksonville state hospital on the date indicated.

BOYS ATTENTION

All boys soliciting in the Victory Boys campaign for the United War Work are requested to report at the Y. M. C. A. this morning at 9 o'clock.

WITH THE SICK

J. K. Long is suffering with an abscess on his back which is unusually large and severe.

Miss Ruth Wilson on East State Street is better after an attack of influenza.

Mrs. Ebenezer Spink, daughter Mrs. Leiland Ward and son Earl, are all recovering.

U. OF C. CO-ED SHINES SHOES

Chicago, Nov. 15.—One of the co-eds at University of Chicago has started a shoe shining stand to raise funds for the United War Work campaign. She charges six cents a shine.

FUNERALS

Hildreth.

Funeral services for Mrs. Louis Hildreth and her infant child were held at Diamond Grove cemetery at 11 o'clock Friday morning in charge of the Rev. Myron L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church. Music was furnished by Miss Cora Graham, T. H. Rapp and W. W. Gillham. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. Cox and Miss Edna Cox.

DEATHS

Taylor.

A message received yesterday by C. W. Taylor from Mrs. Taylor, who is in Tulsa, Okla., with her daughter, Mrs. Ira J. Underwood, brought the sad news of the death of the infant daughter born a few days since. The brief message said "Little Jean died today from heart lesion." The news brought special sorrow to Mr. Taylor, the grandfather, because previous reports had indicated that the baby was well and strong.

FORMER NEW YORK

Paris, Nov. 15.—Robert A. Vanwyck, former mayor of New York city is dead here.

ENTRY POSTPONED

Paris, Nov. 15.—(British Wireless Service)—The entry of the King and Queen of Belgium into Brussels has been postponed and will be probably take place Nov. 23rd, coinciding with the reopening of the Belgina chambers. Meanwhile special trains are being organized for the transfer of Belgian administration and diplomatic bodies.

A Paris despatch Wednesday said King Albert and his family intended to re-enter Brussels today.

GERMAN DESERTERS FORM FLYING DIVISION

London, Nov. 15.—German army deserters who formed a "flying division" at Bremen are plundering German towns according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. Thirty six were arrested in Berlin and three of them were immediately shot. A score of the others were sentenced to death by a court martial.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE LANCET writes: "Chichester's Pills is a safe and reliable remedy for all cases of constipation, biliousness, indigestion, and all the troubles which result from a disordered system. It is sold in all the leading druggists' and chemists' shops, and is also sold by mail order. Price 2s. 6d. per box. Sold by all druggists everywhere."

They've been fighting for their homes since 1914!

Those gallant men who wear horizon blue, those bronzed Poilus, who for over four years have borne the blunt of the fight know the worth of the United War Work. Think of what France has endured. For over four years her able-bodied men under fifty have been under arms. They know the service these organizations have performed.

The French government requested, officially, that American maintenance of morale be extended to her armies. Cheerfully it was undertaken, in simple justice for our splendid debt of gratitude. As hostilities have ended this service must be continued.

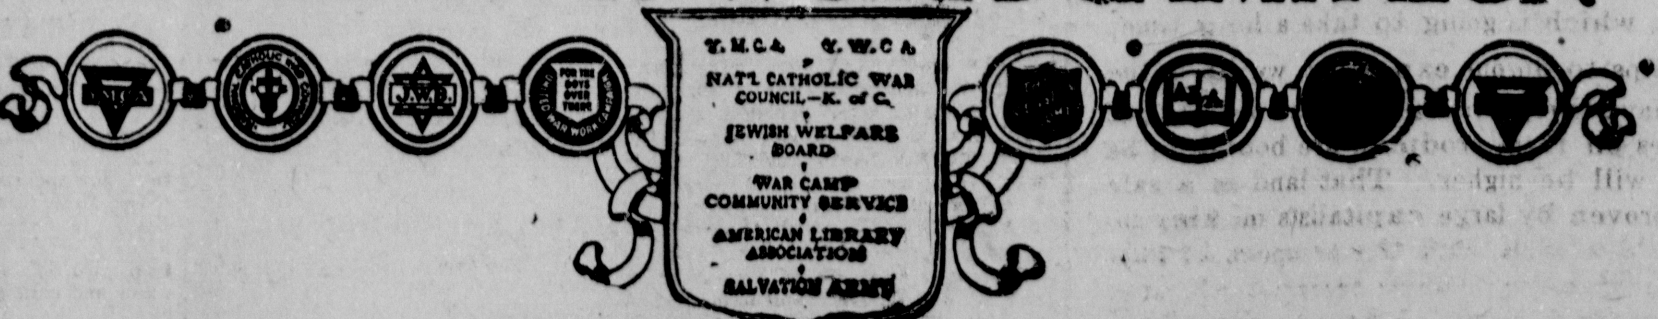

And so hundreds of these huts stand today after the war is over where French and Americans stand side by side, holding out a hand of friendship for the war worn, grizzled men whose fighting spirit has been an inspiration to our Yanks. FOYER DU SOLDAT they call the hut—Hearth of the soldiers—the nearest approach to home.

"The support and comfort of your Foyers," says General Mangin, "has been and will continue to be a tremendous physical comfort and moral support, and has given the soldiers that feeling of home which has been so much lacking."

"Your Foyers," says Clemenceau, "constantly established in increasing numbers, as great at the front as in the rear, has rendered to our soldiers most highly appreciated service. Thanks to your efforts, our children have found in your midst a center of distraction and comfort."

United in war for freedom, the French and their allies have won. United in a campaign for continued morale, these seven organizations come to you as one. Unity of command won on the battle field. Unity in war work will give comfort to the soldiers of France, to our own boys, and keep them cheerful and clean. Give for morale, give for unity. Give for these men who have been fighting for their homes for four years.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Never before in history has there been as good a time as at the present to buy land as an investment. With the war over, business will get on a solid basis. The United States will have to replenish the devastated countries, which is going to take a long time; we have the ships to do our exporting, we have the materials, we have the provisions and the men to put it there. Prices on farm products are bound to be high and land will be higher. That land is a safe investment is proven by large capitalists making inquiries, the last few days, with the prospect of buying large tracts of land. I have farms of all sizes and kinds. Come and see what I have to offer. Also, city property of all kinds, and money to loan.

The Period Of Reconstruction

The Period Of Reconstruction

Now is the time as never before that all humanity is looking to the future and wondering what it will bring forth. From the smallest producer to the greatest consumer to the greatest merchant prince, we all are interested in our own personal needs as well as in the needs of all humanity, in this great reconstruction period after the war.

After the boys come shouting home, and we extend to them the glad hand of welcome, then we must give them a place by our side; then Capital will seek the channels of trade where it will be the most profitable, ever governed by the fly-wheel of safety and confidence.

The great factories will turn from the needs of war to the replenishing of our depleted stocks and that will be a great task for this war has been different from any other war in that the world has been at war and there are no big supplies to crush the belligerents as has been the case in other wars and while the depleted stocks are being replenished the people must be fed; and this means that the products of the farm will be in demand for years.

Conclusion: BUY FARMS!

Give it in Time

Every mother knows that coughs and colds, neglected, may lead to the most dread diseases. Croup, bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption often have their beginning in a slight cold.

The wise mother gives

Foley's Honey and Tar

at the first signs of a cough or cold. She knows it stops coughs quickly, puts a soothing, healing coating on an inflamed and tickling throat, and gives a feeling of warmth and comfort to the sufferer.

Mrs. M. E. Schlarb, Ashland, Penn., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough and cold remedy I have ever tried. When my little girl gets a cold on her chest, I give her a few drops, and it relieves her right away."

VIRGINIA BOY DIES AND IS BURIED AT SEA

William Greenwood, Jr., Makes Supreme Sacrifice—Dies on Board Transport Enroute to France—Virginia News Notes.

Virginia, Nov. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. William Greenwood received a telegram Wednesday evening bringing the sad news of the death of their son Pvt. William Greenwood, Jr., who died on a transport Oct. 12 of bronchial pneumonia, while enroute to France. Private Greenwood was born and reared in Cass county and was a young man of sterling worth and his passing brings a sense of loss and grief to the family and community. Prior to his departure to his training camp

June 26th, he had served as a rural mail carrier for several years.

The telegram stated that he was buried at sea with military honors at sunrise, Oct. 12th. He was the third Cass county boy to make the supreme sacrifice on that ship between ports.

Deceased is survived by his parents, one brother Earl, three sisters, Mrs. Ruth Hudson and Misses Celia and Marie at home. He was a member of the Red Men, I. O. O. F., and M. W. of A.

The shock caused by the explosion of the munition plant at Edwards, Ill., last evening was plainly felt in this city, doors and windows rattling. Citizens thought it was an earthquake until the news of the explosion arrived a few minutes later.

Mrs. James Maslin is very ill at her home east of town suffering from a relapse of the influenza.

Samuel and Frank Greenwood returned yesterday from Camp Dodge, Ia., where they had been called by the illness of the late ter's son Frank Jr. They reported the young man as much improved.

Mrs. Ann Vidin, Gray, DeFrate, and Miss Nellie Irvine were Springfield visitors Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. Felix Long left Thursday for their home in Enfield. They were accompanied home by their son, R. B. Long and family. Mr. Long is recovering from a severe attack of the flu and will make an extended visit with his parents while recuperating his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and children left Wednesday for a visit with relatives in Girard.

Andrew Michaels, an aged citizen of this city, can be relied on as a man of his word. Tuesday morning he appeared on the streets minus a beard which had been his pride for these many years. He had previously agreed to part with his facial adornment at the close of the war. Many friends on meeting him Tuesday morning failed to recognize him.

A few country schools opened this week. The state board of health granted the local board the privilege where conditions warranted.

Mrs. Walt Pfeil of Arenzville was a caller in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenwood of Philadelphia, were notified by telegram from Camp Dodge today that their son Frank, Jr., had suffered a relapse and his condition was critical. Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood left immediately for Camp Dodge.

NOTICE

Those knowing themselves indebted to me will please call at the office within the next two weeks and settle. I have been called to military service and my office will be closed temporarily. During the two weeks my assistant will be at the office during the usual hours. Please give this your early attention.

Announcing The Chicago Tribune's CENTENNIAL HISTORY of ILLINOIS

Five Special 16 Page Rotogravure Sections Starting In Tomorrow's Chicago Tribune

THE STATE of ILLINOIS is celebrating its one hundredth birthday this year. In commemoration of this event The Chicago Tribune announces a Centennial History of Illinois to be presented free—as an added feature—with each copy of The Chicago Sunday Tribune beginning tomorrow and continuing every Sunday for five weeks.

THIS HISTORIC REVIEW will be presented in five special 16-page Rotogravure Supplements—one each Sunday—in addition to the regular Rotogravure Section. It will contain an authentic history of Illinois from the coming of Father Marquette to the present day. It will lay before you in photographic illustrations and in words, a graphic view of Illinois' progress during the last hundred years.

MANY MONTHS of research have been devoted to the preparation of this Centennial History. It is one of the most comprehensive historical reviews of Illinois ever compiled. It is not dry history. It has been written especially in narrative style; spiced with humorous touches—a human interest story.

The Chicago Tribune's Centennial History of Illinois CONTENTS

UNITED WAR WORK BRINGS STORY HOUR TO CHILDREN

Mrs. Claudia Fleming Stopped in the Library After Luncheon and a Small Group of Children Listened Enthusiastically to Her Talk of France.

Mrs. Fleming who spoke at the U. W. W. luncheon Thursday noon went into the Library in the early afternoon to see the Red Cross Christmas boxes and to meet a few of the Red Cross workers.

She stopped in a minute to see the children's room and Miss Fairbank introduced her to the children who were selecting their books. Their eyes grew so big when they knew Mrs. Fleming had been in France and they gathered about eagerly to hear about what she had seen "over there."

Mrs. Fleming told them about last Christmas in the "Y" huts and where they could find pictures of "her hut."

The children especially enjoyed the impromptu story hour because it was about France and our soldiers and Christmas. It was a pity that there could not have been a larger group but of course no regular story hours have been held at the Library during the influenza epidemic.

THE USE OF WHEAT SUBSTITUTES HAS BEEN ABANDONED

Instructions have been received from the United States Food Administration that the 80-20 rule requiring that one pound of authorized substitutes shall be sold with each four pounds of wheat flour has been abandoned.

This means that wheat flour may now be sold by retailers and used by bakers without any substitutes whatever.

COMMUNITY MUSIC RAPIDLY DEVELOPED

J. L. Erb of State University Points to Social and Military Value of Song.

In the course of an address last evening before the faculty and students of Illinois Woman's College, J. Lawrence Erb, Director of the School of Music of the University of Illinois laid emphasis upon the part which music has played in the social reconstruction of the immediate future. Community singing as it is called, while it dates back in its beginnings far beyond the old fashioned singing school, is only a matter of three years old in its present aspects. Its first appearance conspicuously was in New York City in the summer of 1915 where its success was so complete that within a month it was initiated the country over.

At the opening of the war, in April, 1917, when it was not certain what part the natives of the central powers would play, or what disturbances might arise between those foreign residents from the opposing sides in the great struggle, the possibilities of song as a fusing agent was first seriously considered by political leaders. In the state of Indiana, Dean McCutcheon of DePauw University was commissioned by the State Council of Defense to undertake a campaign of community singing for the purpose of Americanizing and welding together the heterogeneous elements of its population. In at least one case, where the police authorities felt that the situation had become too critical he was called in for a campaign of song and, according to the testimony not of musicians but of political leaders and business men, was able in a few days to remove the friction and allay the irritation and restore the communities to something like a normal emotional basis. His feat in this connection has been repeated many times over under other circumstances and distinctly proves the value of patriotic and home songs in this direction.

Songs at Campments.
When the government began sending the younger men to the campments a year ago, singing and other musical activities were at once enlisted as agents for overcoming the dismal homesickness of the boys lately separated from their homes, and for providing a proper influence for the preservation of the morale of the soldiers. The United States government has deliberately gone into the business of establishing singing schools on the largest scale in human history. The universal testimony of those in a position to know, is that songs and music have been of the utmost value both in inspiring the boys to patriotic acts and in preserving the proper mental attitude in times of great stress and temptation. Singing in the army has undoubtedly come to stay.

The value of community singing is not only immediate as a stimulus and inspiration, but it serves in much the same manner as an evangelistic campaign to prepare the way for other more permanent activities along musical lines. For a generation past the American man has considered it poor form to display his feelings. America has been largely mute, has lacked an adequate emotional outlet. With the coming of community singing this outlet is working frantically with the emotional nature of the people. It is giving expression to their hidden thoughts and aspirations.

As a democratizing force, too, community singing has been of the utmost importance. Men and women of all classes and conditions have sung together, elbow to elbow, pouring out their hearts in a common sentiment of patriotism or idealism. Such community of spirit and utterance make for the breaking down of artificial barriers and for the amalgamation of all social strata.

Narrowness in Education.
An education which makes only the brain more efficient, or only furnishes an emotional stimulus may still prove an agent of destruction rather than a blessing. This war has taught us surely, that there must be something more than efficiency and will if the world is not to be devastated. Religion reaches to the heart of the matter, but unfortunately in most lives, religion is only for a few hours one day a week. Some idealistic inspiring force which persists and recurs continuously, must serve to reinforce the work which religion alone cannot do. Of these idealistic forces, none seems to be more potent than music. An education which is too narrow may be dangerous to the society which promotes it. The terrors of the Russian Bolshevik are due quite as much to the narrow distorted education of its leaders as to any other force. Education must be four-squares, must reach all the faculties, both of the individual and of the social organization, and no important element cannot safely be omitted.

Therefore, in this reconstruction of our national and world life, it is of the highest importance that the aesthetic elements in education which represent the emotional and idealistic phases, shall have their proper place and due attention. I know of no force which is more promising in this regard than the community singing which will evolve into music for everybody in which everybody takes part and which will make the song of the instrumental composition as much a part of every home as the newspaper, the magazine or the pictures on the wall. No highbrow attitude toward music, no relegating of music to a professional or privileged class will serve the purpose, but musical activities in which everybody may, and eventually will, take part, for spiritual uplift, community of spirit, and the truest manifestation of the brotherhood of man.

ANNUAL POULTRY EXHIBIT POSTPONED

Will be Held Week of November 25-30 if Quarantine is Raised—If Not It Will Be Held Some Time During the Winter, the Date to be Announced.

The officials of the Morgan County Poultry Association announced Friday evening the postponement of the annual poultry exhibit which was scheduled for the coming week, November 18-23.

The postponement was made necessary by the epidemic of influenza and the quarantine regulations. If the quarantine is raised the show will be held the week of November 25-30. If the quarantine is still in force the exhibit will be postponed until some time during the winter, the date to be announced.

It is greatly regretted by the officers that the postponement is necessary. There is a fine premium list and indications point to a large number of exhibitors. The same premium list will be given as already announced.

The exhibit makes a hardship upon exhibitors to have to postpone the exhibit it is hoped that all of them will keep their birds in condition to be ready to enter them when the show is finally held.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD AT WINCHESTER

Services for Mrs. George Colling Sunday—Wm. Gray Died Friday Night—Scott County News Notes.

Winchester, Nov. 15.—The funeral of the late Mrs. George Colling will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church. Rev. C. W. Caseley will officiate.

Mrs. Colling's maiden name was Laura C. Berry. She was born near Exeter. She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters. Deceased is survived by her husband and one son Paul, together with two sisters, Mrs. Coulson of Chapin and Mrs. Elmer Walker, living north of Winchester; and one brother, Clayton Berry, living at Merritt. Mrs. Colling was a member of the Methodist church and had been a resident of Winchester for many years. She had been in ill health for several years and underwent a serious operation about three years ago. Subsequently she was in better health but had never fully recovered. She was devoted to her home and family and will be greatly missed by many friends.

Supt. C. W. Smith and Principal Miss Olive Wells received letters this week from Guy Overton, with the marines at Indian Head, Md., and Earl Lashmet, with the radio engineers at Harvard. Both give very interesting descriptions of their daily life. The young men both graduated last spring from the high school, and their letters were very much enjoyed by the high school students.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas have received word that their son, Carl Thomas, has arrived safely overseas.

Miss Jessie Small of Canton who has been visiting relative here for the past week, expects to return to her home Saturday. Fritz Haskell, chairman of the Scott county Red Cross, received a letter Friday from the Red Cross headquarters in Chicago which was a reply to a letter from Mrs. Cecil Bagby of Naples, in which the latter stated that her husband's label for a Christmas parcel had been ruined in transit and asked what might be done about it. In answer the authorities of the headquarters stated emphatically that nothing could be done, that no Christmas package to a soldier of the expeditionary forces in France could be mailed to him without this label, adding that no provision was made for the replacement of labels which have been lost, delayed or confused in transit.

William Gray, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, passed away Friday evening about 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Andell. Deceased was married to Miss Mayne Andell about two years ago. He was formerly employed in a barber shop here and subsequently went west. He returned to Winchester for a visit with relatives and became ill and his death resulted as stated above. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

GRAND JURY VISITED THE COUNTY HOME

Found Evidence of Good Management by Mr. McFillen—Inventory of Property.

Altho the grand jury had no court instruction to visit the county home, the long established precedent was followed and the grand jury visited the home Thursday. According to report made they found the property in excellent condition and thoroughly enjoyed the splendid dinner served in their honor. The only recommendation made is that some outside painting work be done. The jury's report was as follows:

"The members of the grand jury, following custom, visited the county home Thursday, Nov. 14. An inspection was made of all the property and the jury found that Supt. McFillen and his wife are giving the property intelligent care. The men and women at the home have good meals and quarters and everything about the place indicates the proper management. Members of the jury felt indebted to Mr. and Mrs. McFillen for the excellent dinner served."

"The inventory of the property shows:
300 bushels potatoes,
250 tons coal
16 brood sows, 1 boar, 119 hogs
70 acres corn
800 bushels oats
25 acres growing wheat
20 tons of timothy hay
20 tons of clover hay
5 cows
Large quantities of cabbage and turnips.

SOME RESIDENCE CHANGES

Several residence changes will take place December 1 as the result of sales recently completed. Fletcher Hopper sold his residence on Diamond Court to Sheriff and Mrs. Grant Grant, who will occupy it December 1, when they move from the county jail building. Mr. Hopper has purchased from Walter W. Wright the property at the southwest corner of Westminster street and College avenue, formerly owned by Mrs. R. S. Nelson. Mr. Wright in turn has purchased the Massey property at 218 Pine street. As indicated, all of these changes are to be made December 1.

LIEUT. APPLEBEE HERE ON FURLOUGH

Lieut. A. B. Applebee accompanied by Mrs. Applebee and their son have arrived from the Great Lakes Naval Training Station for a few days' visit. The signing of the armistice has evidently not meant the end of service for men in the medical reserve corps, as Lieut. Applebee said yesterday that he and his associates now are to take some special courses of additional training at Northwestern University. Later they are to be sent on cruises, so it seems that the navy is to be maintained and the merchant marine will require the services of the dental men now in the service and possibly some others.

Mrs. William Huggins and children and Mrs. F. M. Tucker expect to leave today for Durham, Wyoming, to reside.

Mrs. Franklin Edwards of Springfield, a worker for the Illinois Anti-Tuberculosis society, was a visitor here yesterday.

MADE FINE RECORD

The Victory Girls of the Point school of which Miss Mabel Hannan is the teacher, displayed a splendid spirit in earning the sum of $13.20 for the United War Work fund. Great credit is due the girls who only had one week in which to work, and the fact that there are but ten girls in the school. Mrs. Charles Middleton is in charge of the Victory Girls in the Point school and also was of great assistance in the effort. The girls are: Ivarine Coultas, Juanita Coultas, Alvin Richardson, Pauline Smith, Wilma Richardson, Mildred Middleton, Louise Middleton, Gertrude Wilson, Virginia Vasey, Melba Richardson.

GUNS HAVE COME FOR ILLINOIS COLLEGE S. T. C. A.

Rifles have come for the S. T. C. A. at Illinois college and now the young men can try the manual of arms. The rifles were originally made for the Russian army and not being done in time to ship before the revolution were kept in this country. They were made by the Western Electric Company and are fine weapons.

HAS NEW ADDRESS

Mention was made recently that Ralph F. Sibley had been advanced to the position of corporal. He has been changed from Co. A, development battalion, to utility office of the quartermaster corps. He is at Camp Shelby, Miss., and in a recent letter to a Jacksonville friend said that he has a good position as clerk.

Mrs. George Orear and daughter have returned from a visit with Mrs. George Conover in Sangamon county.
